ANNUAL SUMMER PICNIC

Our annual summer picnic is one of our Lodge's favorite traditions. We'll meet on Sunday, July 15 – arrive anytime from 2 until 5. Beautiful Roxbury Park in Beverly Hills (where Roxbury Drive meets Olympic Boulevard) is the perfect setting for a relaxed, family-style BBQ lunch. Plenty of hot dogs, burgers, roasted peanuts, and sodas will be provided. Everyone is welcome and there is no charge. Bring your own blankets or folding chairs if you have them, as bench seating is limited. Mark your calendar – you don't want to miss this!

25 YEAR PIN PRESENTATIONS

At our August Stated Meeting we will be presenting 25 year pins to all eligible Master Masons in our Lodge. If you have never received your 25 year pin and will be attending the August Stated Meeting please contact Ron Hopkins.

MAGIC CASTLE

On a Saturday in August (either the 11th, 18th, or 25th, depending on who is performing) we will be making a visit to the world's most renowned club for prestidigitators, conjurers, and illusionists, the Magic Castle, under the sponsorship of our Senior Warden. Dinner will be at 6 PM, followed by a succession of amazing feats of ledgerdemain and mystifying magicks. The cost is $20 admission plus dinner. Further details will be announced at the August Stated meeting.

FROM THE EAST

ZENITH LIGHT

AS WE PASS THE SUMMER SOLSTICE and the sun reaches its zenith height above the ecliptic, the days are at their longest and light at its fullest extent. So it is in our Lodge, as it continues to provide light to its members and our new brethren.

Last month our Lodge conferred four degrees: two Entered Apprentice and two Fellowcraft. Congratulations to Brothers Duilio Muller and Bert Kronfeld, who were initiated as Entered Apprentice Masons. We welcome you into our Lodge and offer you every assistance as you begin your Masonic journey.

Congratulations also to Brothers Sean Hale and Hal Kolker, who were passed to the degree of Fellowcraft. Your hard work and diligence as Entered Apprentices has resulted in your preferment to the rank of Fellowcraft. We look forward to your continuing progression in the ranks of our Fraternity.

Brethren, your response to our request for support to the Masonic Homes has been truly overwhelming. Your generosity is a real tribute to the vitality and spirit of our Lodge. Next month we will send in all contributions to the Masonic Homes, so it is not too late to send in your donation. No amount is too small or too large, as every penny is put to good use.

At our July Stated Meeting we will recognize those who have served our country in the military and in the field of public safety. Their sacrifice and dedication safeguard our lives and liberties daily, and in the month that we celebrate our country's independence we should recognize their service.

On July 15th we will be having our traditional Summer Picnic at Roxbury Park (see map). The event is free of charge and all are welcome, so invite your friends and family. Bring a picnic blanket or folding chairs as table space is limited. Our Junior Warden is in charge of the food, so I know it will be good!

At our August Stated Meeting we will be presenting 25 year pins to those Brethren raised in 1982 or earlier.

I look forward to seeing you at Lodge.

RONALD G. HOPKINS, Master

FROM THE SOUTH ANNUAL SUMMER PICNIC

BRETHERN, our annual picnic will be held once again at Roxbury Park. The address is 401 S. Roxbury Drive and is located on the corner of Olympic Blvd and Roxbury Drive. There will be food, fun and entertainment.

See you there.

ANDRE D. HARRELL, Junior Warden
