FROM THE EAST

WHAT KIND OF MASON AM I ?

have no message this month. I have a little quiz. Answer the following questions about yourself just for fun:

1. Do you wear a Masonic ring?
2. Do you wear a Masonic lapel pin?
3. Do you carry your dues receipt with you?

My guess is that you answered one or more of these questions in the affirmative. So you now probably consider yourself a true Mason. I presume you do because you answered in the affirmative.

It becomes my duty, however, to inform you that you have not yet been asked the important questions. And that before you can be considered a true Mason, it will be necessary for you to respond in the affirmative to these as well. See how you do:

1. Do you attend Lodge on a regular basis?
2. Are you currently serving on a Lodge committee?
3. Will the Lodge be in the "Red" or "Black" according to the 2008 budget?
4. Can you name the officers of your Lodge without looking?
5. How many members were present when we changed our name?
6. Who was the last Master Mason raised in your Lodge?

Let me guess what your answers were:

1. Unless you are an officer, the answer was "No."
2. Unless you are an officer, the answer was "No."
3. Unless you are an officer, the answer was "I don't know."
4. Unless you are an officer, the answer was "No."
5. Unless you were the single non-officer in attendance the answer was "No."
6. Unless you are an officer, the answer was "I don't know."

③

How did I do? Did I miss any? These questions were not asked to trifle with your person or feelings, but to make an important point. The Lodge is its members. No more, no less. If the Lodge room is full it is thriving and active and important. If it is empty, it is without form and void.

I have another question. When did you become a Mason? Did you answer it with the date you were raised? True, that is the day your name was entered on the rolls. But that was not my question. Why not let this month be the time you really join your Lodge and become a true and faithful brother among us?

Fraternally,
NORMAN M. SCHULTZ, Master
